Joe Byers, who played with the Ironsides for some time this year and has since been on the Littlestown nine, stopped off this afternoon on his way to Philadelphia to see his old friends play ball.

The following is the batting order of the Ironsides to day: Sixsmith, c. f.; Reilly, 2b.; Spence, 1b.; Oldfield, c.; Ritten house, r. f.; Sweitzer, 3b; Hofford, p. Hanna, I. f.; Zecher, s.s.

The Active base ball club of Reading has been permanently organized for 1884. and it is said that the team will be 100 per cent stronger than any club that the city has ever had. The great effort will be to secure heavy batters.

It is to be hoped that the Ironsides club will not allow themselves to be bull dozed by the Harrisburg club this afterbood. The latter have the reputation of being bullies, and they sustain it either at home or abroad.

The Active and the Brooklyn have with drawn from the inter state association and the Merritt and Anthracite have disbanded so that nothing remains of it but the Trenton, the Quicksteps and the Harrisburg. The inter state did little more in any town than pay ex-

The Houstons are too much for Lancaster,s blood. They telegraphed last night that to come here they must have $65 of a rain guarentee. This was refused by the mangement of the Ironsides, and the date was at once cancelled. The Harrisburg club was telegraphed to and they agreed to come this afternoon.

The Harrisburg club has played more games than any inter state clubs and won more. It should therefore have received the pernant. The Brooklyn club may have won a greater percentage, but as it did not play as many games as Harrisburg, it is ust that it should be declared champion. All clubs should be given a fair, square chance.—Reading Herald.
On Friday and Saturday the Altoona club will play here. They made many friends here on their former visit by their gentlemanly behavior and good ball playing. On Monday they played a fine game with the Johnstown club. Darkness ended the came after ten innigs had been The score stood 1 to 1, with six base hits for each club, the Altoonas having 3 errors and the Johnstown 2.

On Thursday the Harrisburg club will meet the Philadelphia league team in Harrisburg and on Friday and Saturday will go to Chambersburg and Carlisle Upon returning home they will be released or the season by the Harrisburg managers but they remain together for a week or two longer on their own account, playing on a co operative plan. On Monday they expect to meet the Harrisburg combination team, loaning the organization the "Dutch composed of Schappert and The game is a benefit one to the players. BEARTS AND HANDS.

Fashionable Marriage in the Upper Circles of Columbia Society,

A brilliant matrimonial event to which the bon ton of Columbia have been long looking forward took place last evening in the marriage of Mary E. Fendrich, daugh ter of John Fendrich, the wealthy tobacco dealer of that borough, to Dr. W. P. S. Henry, a rising young physician, of Everett, Bedford county, Pa. The cere mony was performed by Rev. George W. Ely in the Presbyterian church, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion. At the upper end of the nave of the church, near the altar, was a beautiful double gateway of flowers, which on the approach of the bridal party was opened by two little misses, Gertrude Bach-man and Annie Pinkerton, both arrayed in garments of flowing white. The bride was attended by the following maids of honor : Miss Annie Fendrich and Miss Mary Henry; Miss Ella Fendrich, Dallas, Texas, and Miss Jennie G. Bachman; Misss Blanche Reese and Miss Mary Scott, Pittsburg. The ushers were Messrs, G. M. Anderson, Bedford ; Wm. H. Fendrich, Columbia; S. L. Philips, Philadelphia; James McConkey, Wrights-ville; Fred. Wilson, Everett, and John L. Purple, Columbia.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests returned to the Fendrich domicile, where a brilliant reception awaited them. The interior of house was beautifully and tastefully decorated with a profusion of rare flowers and evergreens, while the odor of fragrant exotics lent new beauties to the scene. A collarion in the best style of the art of Caterer Stephens was partaken of by the guests, the number of whom is variously estimated at between 400 and 500. The presents were nearly 200 in number and were on a scale of costly magnificence rarely equalled. The reception lasted until 11:30 p. m., when the bridal party drove to this city, where they took the 1:40 a. m. train for the west. They will visit Watkin's Glen, Nagara Falls, Montreal and other places of interest, and will be absent about two weeks.

Two Cases Drawing to a Close. BEFORE JUDGE PATTERSON.

In the case of David Haverstick, jr., vs Rosenbaum & Co, action to recover an amount for tobacco sold and delivered, the defense opened yesterday atternoon, they admitted that the tobacco of plainting was a very fine lot in 1881 but claimed that when it was delivered in 1882, it was unfit for market having been watered, so as to render the greater part of it valueless; the defendants gave plaintiff notice to take it away, or they would sell it to make room for other goods; the notice was disregarded and the tobacco was sold, the sum realized f any remained after deducting storage efendants have been willing to pay. In rebuttal the plaintiff called witnesses show the tobacco was not watered but in good condition on trial. REPORE JUDGE LIVINGSTON.

In the case of Henry S. Herr vs. James Keener the plaintiff closed this morning at 11 o'clock. The defense then opened stating what they intend to prove. They claim that in April 1876 A. W. Harnish decded the laud on which this warehouse was erected to John S. Harnish and James Keener; in November of the same year Herr proceeded to build the warehous for M. S. Harnish and against the protest of the defendant; that until the work was finished and the lien filed Keener had no conversation with Herr in regard to it. The building, it is claimed, was erected at the order and under the supervision of M 3. Harnish and after he bad failed plaintiff said that he knew he was insolvent but he would go on with the work and then file a lien on the building to secure himself, On trial.

The Hebrew New Year.

The Hebrew New Year, which com neneed last evening at sunset, was ob served with more than usual ceremony in the Jewish temple, on East Orange street, which was crowded with worshippers. Rev. Samuel Laski, the rabbi in charge, has recently organized an excellent choir which enables him to present the services in a much more attractive form than form

Last evening the services opened with an organ prelude followed by prayer by the Rabbi. The choir under lead of Mrs. Jennie Luchenbach, sang very effectively, the bymn commencing "We bend our knee to the Supreme King," and this was followed by prayers spoken by the rabbi and sang by the choir. The confession of faith was chanted, and there were responsive services by the choir. A tenor solo, "Malchuschoh" by Mr. Wilde was very ine, and the hymn commencing " Ocean's Tremble," was admirably executed, Mrs Luckenbach, soprano, and Mr. Wilde, tenor, singing the duet, and Mr. Mellinger being the principal basso. The morning service was also largely attended and the services were impressive. The books of the law were read, the holy ark was opened, the shophar was blown, the music was inspiring, and an excellent sermon was preached by Rabbi Laski. The Hebrews of this city are mostly reformers, and observe only one day in elebration of the new year, and the services, therefore, close in the synagogue at sunset this evening. A few of the more orthodox believers continue the observance of the New Year ceremonies until tomorrow evening.

A New Bridge.

The county commissioners have passed a resolution to appropriate $300 towards the construction of a new bridge (not a county bridge) to be creeted across Mill Creek, at Huber's mill, on the line separating Earl from Upper Leacock township, on condition that the bridge be erected by the said townships, jointly, to cost not less than $600.

THE PITTSBURG EXPOSITION BUILD. A Handsome and Costly Structure in Ruin

-Rare and Valuable Exhibits Altogether Destroyed-The Loss

Heavy.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 3.—About 2 o'clock this morning the Exposition building caught fire and in 20 minutes the entire structure, with the machinery and floral halls were in ashes. The fire was first discovered in the engine room in the ma-chine department, and in order not to frighten the citizens a still alarm was sent in and in this way the flames got beyond control so that before the fire department reached the grounds the buildings were almost burned down. When it became known that it was the Exposition, although their way to the scene of the codflagration. The reflection from the fire lighted up the country for miles around, and in the farthest end of the city a paper could be read as easily as in day light. At this hour it is impossible to estimate the loss, but it s believed that it will not fall below $2,-500,000. The exhibits consisted of all varieties of our products and industries.

The Destruction of the Building Complete.

LATER.—The destruction of the Expo sition buildings was complete and nothing but the site remains of the home of speci mens of brain and brawn in which Pittsburg felt so much pride. The fire was first discovered in the boiler room attached to Machinery hall, and before the watchman could give the alarm the flames had spread to the other buildings and in ten minutes they were on fire from end to end and when the fire department arrived the flames were beyond control.

Saving Adjacent Property. Their attention was at once turned to saving adjacent property, many residences on South avenue being in flames. These were all saved however with no more damage than the burning of cornices and fences. Repeated alarms aroused almost the entire population of the two cities and it is estimated that not less then 75,000 to 100,000 witnessed the conflagration. The reflection of flames illuminated the country for miles around. In one hour a mere skeleton of a once magnificient structure was all that remained.

The Loss Exaggerated.

The origin of the fire is still uncertain. Or, The Peer and Peri. The estimate of the loss before given was greatly exaggerated. It will probably Grand Original Company, New and Rich Cos-tumes, Chorus of Thirty Voices. Three Yearstogether in this Company, Music, Mirth, Merit. reach $1,000,000. The buildings were valued at $150,000, and insured for $40, 000. Exhibitors will sustain a loss of about $800,000, in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $10,000.

Irreparable Losses, An irreparable loss was occasioned by the destruction of the relic department. The cash value of the articles contained therein did not exceed $10,000, but many cannot be replaced. The "Arabian," the first locomotive ever run in the United States, was also destroyed.

How the Fire is Supposed to Have Originated. Among the rumors current is one that the fire originated through an incendiary and another that it was caused by an ex plosion of benzine being used by Prof. Warner the balloonist. Another Fire.
